

the NJ do not call list should be a model for other states, and one which others aspire to. Any attempt to reduce its scale is an outrage.